ERA-Can II Rome Symposium on Arctic and Marine Research Infrastructure

Symposium was held in Rome, Italy in September 19-20, 2013

It was a high-level symposium on fostering transatlantic collaboration for the development and use of Arctic and marine research Infrastructure

Brought together an international group of researchers, infrastructure managers and funding agency officials

Three themes explored:

- Science planning for the short and long term
- Coordination, harmonization and access:
- Proposing, evaluating and funding research infrastructure
